I don't think you guys realize what happened last night
this is a statewide issue, what was stopping china or russia interference? what's stopping collusion? this system was OPEN

this is beyond just oregon voter fraud now what last night proved

>using very basic information someone could have gotten access to your voter registration account held by the government

>all your information doxed to anyone >your party affiliation could have been changed

>the address where your ballot was sent could have been changed

>your uncast ballots could have been changed

>if you were a absentee requester someone could have changed your absentee vote

>you could have had your vote invalidated in some states

>ALL OF THIS WITH JUST YOUR NAME AND DOB

>THERE'S NOT BOT PROTECTION, NO CAPTCHA, INFINITE TRIES, THIS COULD BE BRUTE FORCED BY RETARDS

THIS IS THE STORY THEY'RE HIDING FROM THE PUBLIC

THIS IS BIGGER THAN A FEW WEST COAST STATES

THIS IS A BREACH OF GOVERNMENT AND CIVILIAN TRUST

OUR GOVERNMENT INFRASTRUCTURE IS DESIGNED AND ALLOWED TO BE INCREDIBLY INSECURE TO THE POINT ELECTIONS COULD HAVE BEEN IMPACTED

THIS PROVES THE ELECTIONS HAVE BEEN INSECURE AND ARE INSECURE, HOW MANY TIMES WAS THIS DONE BEFORE?

AS IT STANDS RIGHT NOW THIS INVALIDATES THE ELECTION DUE TO SECURITY FLAWS AND EASE OF TAMPERMENT

ANYONE COULD HAVE TAMPERED OR HAD IMPACT IN THIS ELECTION THAT MEANS IT'S NOT SECURE, POTENTIALLY BY DESIGN

THIS IS WHY THEY'RE CENSORING THIS STORY, THIS IS WHAT THEY'RE SCARED OF THIS IS BIGGER THAN ANYONE COULD HAVE IMAGINED

THIS WAS THEIR PLAN, THESE WERE INTENTIONAL, THEY WERE GOING TO USE THIS TO STEAL AN ELECTION, WHAT IF THEY'VE DONE THIS BEFORE? WHAT IF THEY USE THE SAME PROVIDERS OR HOST?

THIS IMPACTS MULTIPLE STATES

>OR, WA, AK, NJ, MA, IND, NC and Broward county FL are confirmed affected. POTENTIALLY MORE, many other sites only need SSN or DL, those have been stolen leaked or hacked for decades (EQUIFAX LEAK?)

AAAAAAAAAAAAAH

IT'S FUCKING

HAPPENING

BPro is the vendor for the vulnerable election portals for Washington, Oregon, Montana, North Dakota, and at least 6 other States and hundreds of counties

Corporation is registered in South Dakota.

BPro owners are Brandon Campea and Abbey Campea. Formerly owned by Sandy Mae Bowers and Kent A. Bowers.

There were previously concerns of this system from WA county officials in 2019:

<https://www.kentreporter.com/news/was-new-voting-system-concerns-county-elections-officials/>

Cost of portal for WA was ~$9.5M.

BPro was one of the four organizations who submitted bids for the VoteWA portal project: BPro, Demtech, Everyone Counts and PCC TG.

What you CAN do (with just Name and Date of Birth):

- >Change someone's party affiliation to block them voting in primaries
- >Invalidate an UNCAST Ballot by saying that the old one was lost(If it is then used it will be rejected)
- >Print a new ballot
- >Vote for someone who has not yet cast their ballot with just Name, DOB and signature (lol)
- >Vote for absentees
- >dox someone

What you CAN'T do:

- >Change CAST votes
- >Vote online (you must print the ballot)
- >Change their information without some other verification (still lax)

How long has this been happening:

- >Since 2012

What has this affected:

- >Republican and democratic primaries
- >local elections
- >referendums
- >general elections

What states has this affected (confirmed but not limited to):

- >Washington State
- >Oregon
- >Alaska
- >Some counties such as (you guessed it) Broward County

Which states could have been affected:

- >Arkansas
- >California
- >North Carolina
- >Indiana
- >Florida

>But anon why does this matter if you can't even vote for them, you need a signature!!!!!!?!?!?!?!?

The mere fact that this exists proves beyond a doubt that the election WAS corruptible. It does not matter if there is proof of it being corrupted, it COULD HAVE BEEN. The entire state of Oregon, Washington and Alaska shouldn't even be able to count as their entire election results are inherently suspect. We KNOW it has been used in the past, we KNOW it could have been used here. We KNOW that the results cannot be trusted.

>The problem with the online voter portals was first spotted by users of anonymous discussion board "Politically Incorrect" on 4chan.org. The board is known for robust open-source research as well as online pranks and offensive posts.

>Screenshots posted to the board around Oct. 18 indicated some users took advantage of the vulnerability to log in as Oregon Gov. Ted Wheeler, Oregon Secretary of State Bev Clarno, and others. It's not clear whether the users went through the whole process of printing new ballots for the officials. The main posts on the board on the subject urged users not to commit voter fraud, but only showcase the vulnerability to publicly expose it.

The only way it gains traction is by pushing it as hard as we can into regular social media and in front of every single normie that we can, and by blasting it at every news org and talking head who might pick it up. If we get the normies first, the social pressure will become irresistible, and larger outlets will follow. I'd reckon Trump and Tucker would be interested in this.

Use #Votergate when spreading this, so people can dig further,

Co-oping the name of the event was the same thing that they did during the pedo investigations. We called it 'Pedogate' at the start but they renamed it 'Pizzagate' so it could be written off as a crazy conspiracy theory about one pizza place when in fact we were investigating many topics and uncovering real conspiracies. The shills that try to suppress that story still operate on these boards. I believe they use keyword triggers to be alerted automatically whenever the topic comes up so they can shut it down. Also, you can expect the mainstream media to misrepresent this story tomorrow.

Give Trump 4 years free because they stole his Presidency and get rid of any form of remote or mail voting. Only in person, producing a federal ID proving citizenship to be verified and marked online on a single server US wide. Paper ballots to be preserved for 10 years in secure locations.

Sick, absentee, felon, dead? Tough luck, try next time. Poll workers have to pass literacy test and no rap sheet in the last 10 years

I'm not advocating for anyone to do this, I'm just saying it could be a potential ramification. Like that uzbekistani guy the other night who started up a bot to change registrations and request ballots n whatnot. Somebody would see that something is amiss. Anybody else think it's weird that it's in these mostly liberal areas. I'd think that if the intent was to change votes in favor of liberals the exploit would allow for changing cast votes. What would the benefit to liberals be for canceling votes? Is the thought that they'd just only cancel republican votes or is the fact it'd be mostly liberal votes effected on purpose so they can claim their side is being disenfranchised?

Cursory search says the population of Oregon is 4.19 million people. Population of Portland is approx 650,000, Eugene 200k, Salem 175K. These are your heavy democrating voting blocks in Oregon. It doesn't even weigh up to half the population of the state, and a lot of the folks in the state, and even some of these traditionally heavy blue areas, are very pissed off at the Dem establishment because of the unending riots and the wildfires started by Antiwhite radicals. I think it would be used to silence Republicans, honestly, considering most of the state is a blood red swath outside of those highly liberal cities. Honestly, it's probably how they've been winning elections for a long time. There are sauces that support that supposition in some of the earlier posts in this thread detailing archive links and all that.

It's possible that this was designed to maximize their stranglehold on areas that they already appear to have complete control over. They definitely want to flip red states, but they certainly can't afford to lose states they're supposed to own. If they're already detecting how things can swing back to the right, they can cancel the swing entirely and make it look like they always had control.

>in Broward at least, your county may be less treasonous

YOU CAN ALSO CHANGE ADDRESS WHICH CHANGES POLLING PRECINCT

<https://registration.elections.myflorida.com/en/CheckVoterStatus> takes you to this page showing all your voter information, your precinct, your voter ID, your registration, your address, etc.

This info and these links built into the page allows you to change your address because guess what m8, that form only requires current address, name, and birthday like the absentee ballot form. What does that mean? You with your dick in your hand at the wrong polling precinct because someone set your address to 12345 poopoopeepee Ave. out inna ghetto across town by zipcode.

WA and OR aren't saying shit to the press (it's also sunday and no one in state government is working) yet, so all they have to report on is shitposts on 4chan and fucking around with the sites themselves.

If tomorrow the websites are forced to shut down to prevent more (((russian trolls))) then we'll know the game is up. There is no way they can run these systems with the damage already done. They could have thousands if not tens or hundreds of thousands of fucked up votes by virtue of foreign l33t haxxors with the 2018 vote rolls.

Even if the pajeets in South Dakota figure out how to implement recaptcha, it's just a smidge more work for the next exploit now that they're playing catch up. They won't be able to ignore it and they won't be able to run it as is. Every vote in these states with the shitty web interface is compromised. There is no way to tell when and where it started and past elections of people getting disenfranchised by mystery party affiliation changes and stolen ballots is just under the surface if anyone digs.

this thread has more posters inside of it also bump cause more eyes on

The dem plan is pretty obvious

they're using PAC mass voter roll data to sniff out unlikely, dead, or moved voters

>they apply for an absentee ballot or mail in depending on state

>they submit it

>county election commission has piss poor democrat run signature verification and rubber stamps all of them

>~500 ballots in a district with 10,000 voters might be fraudulent, but go right under the radar >only a few dozen ever get caught out of the few hundred/thousand incidents of fraud committed >proportionately safe election amirite fellow humans?

>enough to flip a point or two and turn a red district blue >enough to ensure a democrat stronghold funnels votes into gubernatorial races and such.

You won't get your vote stolen because thats obvious if you actually vote. They're ballot harvesting grandma and her dead husband, not a 40 year old the voter rolls show has voted in the last 10 elections.

>but if someone were to do what's possible with the democrats little fraud game you get ethopian jews mass invalidated tens of thousands of oregon votes with a bot that scorched earth ruins the whole crooked game. An event so big it's unignorable due to the damage it causes to election integrity, forcing a shift to a more secure form of voting where the dems can't cheat so fucking overtly.

>The problem with the online voter portals was first spotted by users of anonymous discussion board "Politically Incorrect" on 4chan.org. The board is known for robust open-source research as well as online pranks and offensive posts.

>Screenshots posted to the board around Oct. 18 indicated some users took advantage of the vulnerability to log in as Oregon Gov. Ted Wheeler, Oregon Secretary of State Bev Clarno, and others. It's not clear whether the users went through the whole process of printing new ballots for the officials. The main posts on the board on the subject urged users not to commit voter fraud, but only showcase the vulnerability to publicly expose it.

>Being skeptical at first, [we] just couldn't come to terms with this large of an exploit in Oregon's voting system being real. That was, until he checked it out himself:

>"Now, when I first saw this story, I did not believe it. Could it possible be that easy? That all you needed was a person's name and date of birth to access their voter information and perhaps change their vote? Yeah."

>These suspicions were confirmed when looking into a (now deleted) twitter posting where someone showcased that online pranksters found this exploit within the Oregon online voter portal – and changed Portland Mayor Ted Wheeler's vote to for Donald Trump.

>Claims from users on the anonymous messageboard 4Chan went viral on Saturday evening, as people said they discovered a way that ballots can be cancelled online in Washington — and that an Oregon voter's registration can be changed, using just the voter's name and date of birth.

Then why aren't we posting anything on social media? We could easily gain traction and make this thing blow up if we shove it in normies's faces. But why aren't we ? Why restrict ourselves to news outlets?

A. We are

B. It's already getting debunked by bot accounts

>which means we're right

C. Media is slowly picking up on it it's a big lie so large no one thinks it's possible. Once someone like Tuck puts it in the ear of half the households in america in a few nights though, it'll eclipse the fact Biden isn't able to serve as a president. Every election back to Obama in 2012, only under these systems mind you it goes back further, is most likely rife with provable voter fraud by a simple audit of mail in votes and duplicate mail in/in person voting. There is probably a digital paper trail too.

Twitter is suppressing it hard, posts containing keywords or hashtags related to it are being automatically moderated and removed from public view

I assume the same can be said for Facebook

Given both of these companies and big tech's overwhelming leftist/marxist bias it's no surprise they'd want to stop normies from hearing about what basically amounts to the way that dems and other anti-American interests have been meddling in our elections for possibly over half a decade or longer being revealed.

Has anyone called the Oregon Voter Protection hotline that was setup on FRIDAY to report this? It's odd that they set it up the day before all this came out.
